by using a Common Topic (Presentation 2)

Presentation guide

Make a presentation about how the common topic case will be solved 3 questions by applying your country law.

Time allocation: 20 minutes

Style: Power point

Common Topic

Mr. A owned certain properties including pieces of land. A had lived with his wife B and her son C whose father was D who died before B was married with A. A had two children, daughter E and son F, whose mother was G. But, A and G divorced.

A had made a testamentary will and it stipulated that all inheritance shall be given to E. After that A died. However, before E redistricted the acquisition of A's heritage, F applied for the registration of the acquisition of a share of one-fourth of the piece of land which included in A's inheritance in accordance with the provision of legal inheritance and sold the share to H, and registered it. H knew that A had left the testamentary will to the effect that all the inheritance shall be given to E.

Common Topic

Question 1

Who are the heirs of A in your legal system and how is the share of each heir determined?

Can C be an heir of A and succeeded A's inheritance? If C can, how much C can succeeded A's inheritance?

Question 2

Can the heirs sell their shares of each property such as a piece of land included in the inheritance to a third party even before the division of inheritance?

Question 3

Can E claim for the invalidity of the transaction of the share of the piece of land between F and H and for the deletion of the registration?
